

Our Shared Humanity

May 21, 2020. 12:00 – 1:00pm

RSVP sherazi@gonzaga.edu for Zoom link

Office of Diversity, Equity & Inclusion and the IMPACT group invite you to a discussion led by Dr. Rosemarie Hunter, Inaugural Dean of the School of Leadership Studies. She writes, "When our shared humanity is embraced, deep connections can be created across differences in ways that values and respects the rich expressions of human experience and response. This IMPACT conversation will use the medium of storytelling to explore the spaces of shared humanity in our lives and how we cultivate these sacred spaces for bringing wholeness, effecting change and addressing complex social issues." Dr. Rosemarie Hunter joined Gonzaga University in June 2019, as the Inaugural Dean of the School of Leadership Studies. Previously, Dean Hunter served as social work faculty at the University of Utah from 1995 – 2019. While at Utah, Dean Hunter served in several administrative positions including, Special Assistant to the President for Campus-Community Partnerships, Director of University Neighborhood Partners (UNP), Director of Undergraduate Social Work Field Education and Director of International Social Work. Dean Hunter is the founding director of the Bridging Borders Project; a global collective working together to transform traditional boundaries and create vital networks that lead to pathways in education for communities living at or working with those at the margins. Her community service includes serving on the Board of Community Campus Partnerships for Health and as an Ambassador for the Global Social Service Alliance. Her accomplishments were recognized by the 2015 YWCA Outstanding Achievement Award in Community Service; the 2018 Excellence in Global Engagement Faculty Award, the 2018 Community Engaged Teaching and Scholarship Award.

Please RSVP by noon on Friday, May 15, for Zoom link: sherazi@gonzaga.edu

IMPACT is an affinity group for faculty and staff of color and their allies at Gonzaga. The purpose of IMPACT is to support members who are part of underrepresented groups on campus. This conversation is sponsored by the Office of the Associate Provost, Diversity Equity & Inclusion, and Chief Diversity Officer.
