

VISION 2024

MISSION: The College of Arts and Sciences lives our Jesuit, Catholic, and humanistic character by providing learning experiences that transform our students, faculty and staff.

We do so by:

- encouraging self-reflection on life, faith and knowledge
- engaging with meaningful problems in our local and global communities
- pursuing the cause of social justice
- fostering scholarly inquiry, creativity and collaboration

The College develops women and men for others, ready to face the intellectual, vocational and spiritual challenges of today and tomorrow.

GOALS	ENGAGE in holistic, active learning that builds meaningful and practical knowledge and a passion for scholarly inquiry	COLLABORATE locally and globally, promoting whole person learning through civic and community engagement	TRANSFORM our students into women and men for others through critical reflection on faith, culture and social justice	BUILD on our current strengths and develop new ones through careful stewardship of our human and material resources
--------------	---	---	--	--

OBJECTIVES	Promote a culture of rigorous and deep learning through the collaboration of students and faculty in research and application	Provide/support educational, civic, artistic, and intellectual opportunities in the Inland Northwest	Provide opportunities for critical reflection on the roles of faith and reason in society, cultures, and our students' chosen disciplines	Sustain and strengthen our capacity to provide an academically excellent education
	Create opportunities for students and faculty to apply concepts inside and outside the classroom through active learning and professional pursuits	Team with educational, institutional, and professional partners at Gonzaga and around the world to create a global educational experience for our students	Develop programs that inspire our students to live and work intentionally	Create new programs and support existing efforts that connect emerging needs to the liberal arts model of education
	Support the design and implementation of innovative curricula, educational programs, and experiences	Develop and strengthen relationships within the Gonzaga community	In the Jesuit, Catholic, humanist tradition, cultivate the virtues of social justice and the ability to empathize with others to create a more sustainable, participatory, and equitable world	Invest in the leadership and performance potential of our staff and faculty through meaningful development opportunities