International Studies Language Requirement

All International Studies majors are required to take six (6) credits at the 300-level or higher in a modern language other than English. Students may need to take language courses at the 100 or 200-level, depending on their previous studies of the language and where they are placed in the sequence of courses.

300-level language courses 6 Credits

NOTE: If a given language is only offered at Gonzaga through the 202 level students may, with prior approval from the Int'l Studies Dept. Chair, complete their upper-division language courses abroad, or at another approved domestic institution. If no such alternative is feasible students may, with prior approval from the Int'l Studies Dept. Chair, take two semesters of a second language that is relevant to their course of study. Transfer students who have not previously studied a language will be required to complete courses through the 202 level.
