Degree Worksheet for the College of Arts and Sciences: 2022-2023

COMMUNICATION STUDIES MINOR

MINOR in COMMUNICATION STUDIES: 21 CREDITS

LOWER DIVISION — 9 Credits

Conceptual/Theoretical Foundation courses:

Course	Course Title	Credits	Grade
Two of the following three courses:
COMM 210	Understanding Meaning-making	3
COMM 220	Understanding Power in Culture	3
COMM 230	Understanding Identity	3

Inquiry Method courses:

One of the following two courses:
COMM 275	Analyzing Public Texts	3
COMM 285/SOSJ 263	Analyzing Practices & Habits	3

IMPORTANT:

Upper level electives may have specific pre-requisites. Students must plan their 200-level coursework carefully based on the upper-level electives they wish to take.

Check the catalog carefully! Consult with your advisor or the Department Chair for assistance.

UPPER DIVISION — 12 Credits

Select four (4) of the following courses:
One course (3 credits) must be at the 400-level.

Course	Course Title	Credits	Grade
COMM 310	Politics of Popular Culture	3
COMM 320/INST 320	Resistance, Struggle & Power	3
COMM 330/INST 332	Politics of Space & Place	3
COMM 331/SOSJ 363	Argumentation & Debate	3
COMM 340	Encounters in Public Spheres	3
COMM 350/INST 351	Politics of Social Memory	3
COMM 360	Media Aesthetics	3
COMM 370	Digital Culture/Networked Self	3
COMM 401	Communication & Leadership	3
COMM 420	Critical/Cultural Communication	3
COMM 430/INST 430/SOSJ 466	Intersectional Communication	3
COMM 440/INST 440	Rhetoric of Social Change	3
COMM 450/SOSJ 465	Justice & Arts of Civic Life	3
COMM 480	Themes in Communication	3
COMM 485	Communication Abroad*	3

NOTES:

Electives for COMM Minors do not include Independent Study, Internship, or Capstone courses.

Minors may take COMM 490 Crafting Professional Identity, but it is not a required course for the minor.

*COMM 485 is for transfer credit for select study abroad experiences