

11.21.19 beginning at 10:50am

11.22.19 beginning at 12:00pm

Critical Race and Ethnic Studies
at Gonzaga University
Presents:

AN INTERDISCIPLINARY
PERSPECTIVE

November 21 & 22, 2019
College Commons, Humanities Building 153

Co-Sponsored by the Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion

PROGRAM:

Thursday, November 21, 2019:

10:50 am - 12:05 pm

Race, Social Justice, Pedagogy, and Student Engagement

Presented by: Jeff Dodd, Juliane Mora, and Jonathan Rossing

12: 25 pm - 1:40 pm

Race in the Modern U.S.:

Sara Diaz: "Race, Eugenics and the Politics of Respectability"

Veta Schlimgen

1:50 pm - 3:05 pm

Race and Popular Culture

Bernadette Calafell: "Horror at the Border: El Gigante"

E. Cassandra Dame Griff

PROGRAM:

Friday, November 22, 2019:

12:00 pm - 1:15 pm

Student Research and Activism

David Boose's students: "The Biology of Human Difference - Creating a Web Resource"

CRES students

1:30 pm - 2:45 pm

Race and Representation

Raven Maragh-Lloyd: "Studying Race and Algorithms: An Interdisciplinary Approach"

Melissa Click: "Disgusted with the Whole Thing:
NFL (Anti-)Fans, Race, and the National Anthem"

11.21.19 beginning at 10:50am

11.22.19 beginning at 12:00pm

Thank you for joining
Critical Race and Ethnic Studies
for our first symposium on:

AN INTERDISCIPLINARY
PERSPECTIVE

