WEST COAST METHODS INSTITUTE ANNUAL MEETING 2026
"The Idea of the University Today: Newman, Lonergan, and Higher Education"

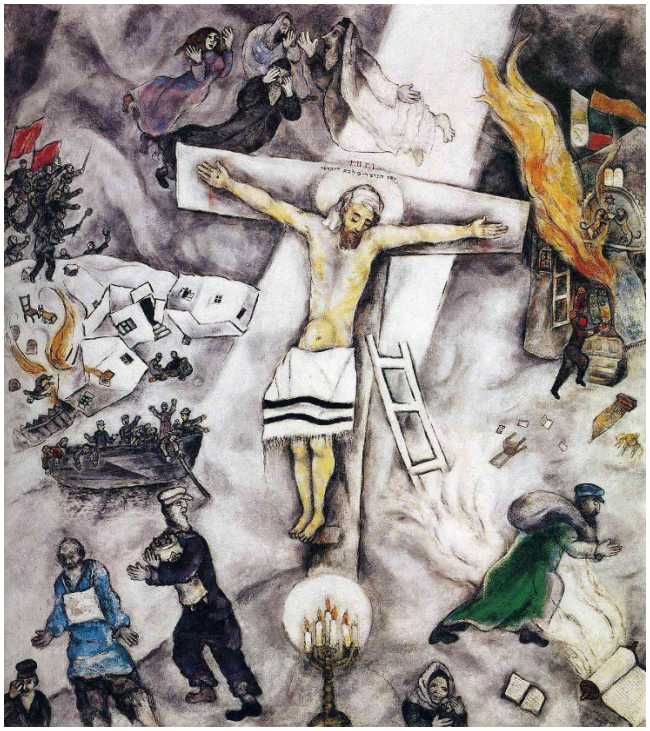
Bernard J. Tyrrell Memorial Lecture

Why a Theology Core?

Atheism, Spiritual Conversation, and the Crucifixion

6:00pm, Friday, April 24

Wolff Auditorium, Jepson Center



Jennifer M. Sanders, Ph.D. is the Michael and Rita Mooney Visiting Professor and Director of the Catholic Studies program at Saint Louis University. Her scholarship focuses on bringing Bernard Lonergan's trinitarian theology and soteriology into conversation with theologies of nonviolence. Dr. Sanders teaches courses exploring Catholic imagination, Catholic Intellectual Tradition and the Good Life, Lonergan's Insight, the Catholic literary tradition and St. Thomas, suffering and evil in Catholic thought.

For additional information about the West Coast Methods Institute see www.gonzaga.edu/wcmi. Sponsored by the Catholic Studies Program.
Questions – contact Joseph Mudd at mudd@gonzaga.edu, 509-313-6799

GONZAGA UNIVERSITY