Roadmap of the Law School Experience
ROOM LAW 227

PROF. MELISSA RAMIREZ KILMER
Find out what you need to do to go from law school admission to bar admission. It is a long and winding road and Prof. Kilmer will discuss all the mile markers you will pass on your journey. She will discuss your course work, testing and graduation requirements.

Overview Legal Research & Writing (LRW)
ROOM LAW 143

PROF. DREW SIMSHAW
In this session, LRW professors will introduce themselves, describe the courses in the LRW curriculum (with a focus on the required first-year courses), explain how LRW is similar to and different from the other first-year courses, offer advice on adopting an effective mindset for success in the courses (and throughout your career), and allow time for Q & A.

Center for Civil and Human Rights (CCHR)
ROOM LAW 226

PROF. SARAH HARMON
The Center for Civil and Human Rights houses a diverse range of programming, events, and scholarship to help law school students connect with and serve our communities in need, curate a law school curriculum and experience that prepares students for public interest work and/or a civil and human rights practice and learn about current litigation and laws impacting civil and human rights. Come learn about our Center, including your Graduation Public Service Requirements, Pro Bono opportunities, a Certificate for Civil and Human Rights, Summer Internship Public Interest Grants, and the Civil Rights & Liberties Moot Court Team.

Chastek Library Tour
LIBRARY CIRCULATION DESK

BRIAN SEGUIN, HEAD OF PUBLIC SERVICES LIBRARIAN & ERIKA HENRY, USER SERVICES SPECIALIST
Come learn why law students love studying in Chastek Law Library! We will introduce you to the resources, services, and people that make Chastek an invaluable partner in your academic success at GU Law. Attendees will tour all three floors of the space. Questions and suggestions for resources or services are welcome!
