About us –

The Center for Community Engagement (CCE) positively transforms our students and communities by connecting Gonzaga University with local, regional, and global partners,

Honoring the Jesuit commitment to social justice and solidarity, CCE partners with staff, faculty and the community to develop relationships grounded in reciprocity that strive to meet the needs of the community and promote social change.

CCE provides experiences that allow students to hone their intellectual, physical, spiritual, and emotional gifts in service for the common good. Through these experiences, students will grow in their understanding of complex societal issues, will have the desire and ability to challenge oppression in their own communities, and will seek solidarity with those impacted by injustice.
