A Personal Note of Thanks

“I am the youngest child and the first in my family to go to college. I was adopted when I was a baby from Vietnam and have grown up in Montana. Thank you so much for helping me along this journey and showing your support and belief in my future. This means so much, especially since I am the first to go to college and the first of my name to be in the United States. I have worked hard to get where I am, and I am forever grateful for you and your generosity!”

DeLaney Heppner ('23)
Accounting major from Helena, Montana
