Mon, 9/16, 10/7, 11/4, 12/2 • Out to Lunch with Allies • 12-1PM • Various Locations • Participate in this monthly lunch and learn for students, staff, and faculty focused on LGBTQ+ educational topics. Locations: 9/16 & 10/7 in HEMM 201, 11/4 & 12/2 in HEMM 314

Tues, 9/3 • Test the Rainbow: LGBTQ+ Trivia • 6-7PM • HEMM 215 • A fun pop quiz?! Come test your knowledge about LGBTQ+ pop culture and history. Prizes will be awarded!

Fri, 9/27 • Lincoln LGBTQ+ Center 15th Anniversary • 5-7PM • Cataldo Globe Room • Did you know that Gonzaga is the first Jesuit university to open an LGBTQ+ Resource Center? This anniversary celebration is open to everyone, including alumni and community members.

Tues, 10/1 • Coming Out: A 50 Year History • 5:30-7PM • Humanities Building, Room 153 • Narrated by transgender teen, Jazz Jennings, this documentary features young people interviewing LGBTQ+ elders who came out in different historical eras from the 1950s through today. This screening is in honor of LGBTQ+ History Month and National Coming Out Day.

Fri, 10/11 • Mass of Compassion • 12:10-1:30PM • Student Chapel 3rd Floor College Hall • A collaboration with Mission & Ministry, Mass of Compassion emphasizes the intersection of LGBTQ+ identities with Catholic faith in a space that affirms both equally.

Tues, 11/19 • Trans In America • 5:30PM-7PM • HEMM Auditorium • Trans in America includes three short documentaries about how transgender civil rights in the U.S. reveal the daily impact of discrimination on three families as they battle bathroom

Unity Multicultural Education Center (UMEC) (509) 313-5836

Tues, 9/10 • Mind to Muscle: Your Mental Health Matters • 5:30-7PM • HEMM Auditorium • Sam Louie — psychotherapist, spoken word artist, author, and Emmy Award winning journalist — delivers an interactive presentation including spoken word on the impact of mental health and cultural awareness.

Tues, 9/17 • Social Justice Unlimited: Accessing Liberation • 5:30-7PM • HEMM Auditorium • Part 1: How does disability, race, gender, and class intersect? How do we talk about these concepts? Building awareness around how social justice, inclusion, and belonging practices can help create campuses where all students can thrive. This program is a UMEC & LGBTQ+ collaboration.

Tues, 9/24 • Social Justice Unlimited: Accessing Liberation, “Real Talk” • 5:30-7PM • HEMM Auditorium • Part 2: A panel of people with disabilities share their experiences, setting the framework for us to think about how disability identity has operated in our own lives and in others.

Mon, 9/30 • Monuments & Memory: Comparing Public Reckonings with the History of the West & South • 6-7:30PM • HEMM Ballroom • Dr. Neil Foley critically examines the role and educational significance of historical materials and photos and their cultural impact.

Mon, 10/7 - Sun, 10/13 • Art & Activism Series: Taking Up Space • HEMM Rotunda • What does it mean for a woman to take up space? Featuring photos and the words of Gonzaga students, staff, and faculty, this art exhibit acknowledges the women who were excluded from the suffrage movement and what it means for women today to challenge the current power structures.

Tues, 10/8 • Real Talk About Law School • 5:30-7PM • HEMM 215 • Thinking about law school? Sit down with GU Law students as they give the low-down on everything from applying to graduating — and everything in between.

Tues, 10/15 • The Fire and the Firefly: Words Matter — An Evening of Spoken Word with Alex Dang! • 5:30-7PM • HEMM Auditorium • Poetry Grand Slam Champion and TEDx speaker, Alex Dang performs poetry about identity, relationships, intersectionality, and more. Dang facilitates a poetry workshop following this program sponsored by both UMEC and the Lincoln LGBTQ+ Resource Center.

Tues, 10/29 • Tim Wise: The Politics of Race and Class in America • 6-7:30PM • HEMM Ballroom • A prominent anti-racist writer and educator in the U.S., Tim Wise examines the ways that American politics and culture serve to rationalize inequities on the basis of class and race.

Tues, 11/5 • Multiple Lens Series: So Close to America: Undocumented Farm Workers & The Myth of the Free Ride • 5:30-7PM • HEMM Auditorium • We've all heard claims made about undocumented workers. This film and post-screening discussion takes the audience to farm country, scans the media landscape, and talks to experts to find if these claims stand up to hard evidence.

Tues, 11/12 • Multiple Lens Series: “The Hate U Give” • 5:30-7PM • HEMM Auditorium • Based on a best-selling novel, this film tells the story of a young woman switching between two worlds: the poor, mostly black neighborhood where she lives and the wealthy, mostly white prep school she attends. A post-screening discussion immediately follows.

Fri, 11/15 • International Day of Tolerance • 12:00-12:30PM • HEMM Rotunda • This 11th annual IDOT at GU raises public awareness of the dangers of intolerance and the importance of solidarity in accepting different cultures.
