 - Certification will help future projects get approved and ensures the responsible treatment of subjects.
 - The event was funded for 29 people and 28 showed up and were certified.
 - B. Swing Dance Reflection
 - This Saturday Swing Dance used the funding to hire a band to perform in support of Letters to Heroes. The band helped increase turnout and allowed the club dancers to attend free of charge.
- V. University/Executive Report
 - A. Trent (Vice President)
 - Town Hall is Nov. 27th 5:30 – 8:30 in the Hemmingson Ballroom. Please come.
 - International Day of Tolerance this Friday 12:00 – 12:30 in the Rotunda.
 - Campus Events would love to see more attendance at GSBA weekend events and Coffeehouse.
 - As GSBA members, we are not required to give any statements to outside news sources. Talk to Ryan (Director of Communications) before conducting any interviews or answering any questions.
 - Ines – How should we approach communication with the Bulletin? Trent – Speaking to them is totally fine and encouraged because they are an internal news source. However, talk to Ryan (Director of Communications) with any other questions or concerns related to GSBA communications.

B. Fese Elango (Director of Diversity and Inclusion)

- Campus Events and DNI staff went to NACA in California for a training event.
- Intersectionality week is coming up. Please reach out to Fese with any feedback, questions, or suggestions about past or future events.
- DREAM Week was a success last week.
- Look out for future DNI events.
